BIO

Bret's gigs have been as varied over the years as the many corners of the globe he finds himself. Whether it's playing Tech House and Nu Disco until sunrise in Thailand, cool pool-side beats for Nikki Beach, or floor filling EDM at Linekers in Marbella, there's always one common thread - a love of the power of music to entertain, thrill and bring people together in one common experience.

Moving from Spain to Dubai 2016, Bret has just come off the back of a residency at Mr Miyagi's that saw him pack the dancefloor every weekend. An instinctive performer who is always in tune with his audience, he's available for residencies or private gigs.
